

Quiz: Trapping in Today's World

1. What furbearer was most sought after in the early settlement of North America?
2. Name five major North American cities settled because of the fur trade.
3. What is the most important thing all wildlife needs to survive?
4. What government body is responsible with managing wildlife today?
5. Who pays for almost all wildlife management?
6. What model is used to manage wildlife?
7. What are the guiding principles of this model?
8. What major program examined modern traps?
9. What are the five criteria for acceptability of modern traps?
10. Who actually developed these traps?

Extra credit

11. Most states have mandatory Trapper Education for first time trappers. Who are the Instructors?
12. What is the first subject they teach?
13. Who does most of the hands-on catching of animals for relocation?
14. What are their tools?
15. Where does the majority of information about the current state of fur bearers come from?