

Additional Information

Best Management Practices for Trapping --Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies

Pittman- Robertson Act - dollar amounts --- U.S. Dept. of the Interior

Dollar Amounts for each state from Pittman-Robertson Act, Dingell-Johnson Act, and license fees—Contact the Information Dept. for the appropriate state Fish and Wildlife Dept.

Principles of Wildlife Management -- Any state Hunter Education Dept., Trapper Education Dept. or Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies

North American Model of Wildlife Conservation---Any state Fish and Wildlife Agency, Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies, or conservations groups like Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation

Ethical and Humane treatment of wildlife---Any state Hunter Education or Trapper Education Dept. Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies, Fur Takers of America, National Trappers Association, or any state Trappers Association

It is highly recommended for anyone , male or female, to take a Hunter and/or Trapper Education course whether there is any desire to hunt or trap or not. Usually they are free and the information is invaluable for anyone interested in wildlife and wild places.